Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary Exempt Purpose

Children of the Hills primary purpose is to assist in the education of tribal children living in the Hills of Bangladesh and to provide life improvements that will ultimately enable the tribal community to become self-sufficient. There are thousands of tribal children in the Hills who have no educational opportunity. Children of the Hills is working in partnership with the Bangladesh Tribal Association of Baptist Churches to establish primary schools in villages where churches have been established but no schools exist. Children of the Hills is supporting agricultural projects with the goal of providing future educational funding. Children of the Hills is also providing micro-loans to tribal women for the purpose of increasing family income.

Children of the Hills is working towards the day when the BTABC when the BTABC educational program is self-supporting through sale of trees.

Other Program Service Accomplishments

Description	Grants And Allocations	Includes Foreign Grants	Program Service Expenses
BTABC Education Administration Grant - Children of the Hills is providing 95% of the support for the administration of the Bangladesh Tribal Association of Baptist Churches educational program. CoH provided staff salary, training, office supplies for four people in this administration office. This office manages the educational program for approximately 2,400 students.	10,944	Yes	0
Hebron School Grant- Hebron School is the largest of our primary schools (approx. 140 children) and the only school with a sizable infrastructure (multiple buildings). This grant has covered 90% the cost for the maintenance, repair and operation of the facilities. This grant has also covered the cost of Hebron's school's electric bill for the entire year.	7,052	Yes	0
Sponsor a Student Grant - Children of the Hills established a sponsorship program in 2019 for at-risk students. Many of the tribal students who live in the Hostels and attend a local government school come from families who spend 90% of their family income on food for the family. These families have little funds for the education of their children and cannot afford to keep their children in the BTABC's heavily subsidized Hostels. The sponsorship program is providing a small amount of money to keep the poorest of the student in school. This program was established with the understanding that Children of the Hills is working in partnership with parents of the students. Both parties pay a portion of the student's educational and living expenses. In 2021, this grant was able to enable 58 students to remain in school.	6,288	Yes	0
Invest in Community Life Grant - This program provided micro-loans for tribal women for the purchase of livestock, seed or sewing machines and it provided 60% of the salary for a lady to oversee the women's groups from 120 churches. The program enables women to start small businesses to supplement family income. Most tribal families struggle to support themselves with 95% of their income going towards food, leaving little for housing, clothing, medicine and education. This program provided sufficient funds for 50 new loans ($62 each) and it enables women's groups from four different tribes to work together to address their common challenges. The program has been highly successful with 85% of the loans returned within 12 months. When existing loans come in, the funds are turned around and go out as new loans to other women in the Hills. Between the funds that have come back from returned loans and the funds which Children of the Hills provided for new loans, this program wrote a new chapter in the lives of 80 families.	3,674	Yes	0
